

Ammyt are scathing lead guitars, fighting with brutal growls and screams while the rhythm section offers the perfect battleground by playing fat and grooving motives.

Versatile, fast and catchy melodic death metal – that’s what the four musicians from Weiden stand for.

Together with bands like Hemlock, Orden Ogan or Dust Bolt they also showed that their liveshows are very energetic.

Thanks to the lack of “forced seriousness“, which unfortunately can be found in metal a lot nowadays, the musicians create a friendly atmosphere that invites to party.

Or like Fabian would say: “There’s always time for a wall of death!“

Ammyt are:

Fabian Wirth (vocals, bass), Daniel Brenner, Philipp Hagn (guitars) & Adrian Bodensteiner (drums).
